

Miss Crowe's will, and it leaves you everything, cottage included."

He thrust his document under Jim Maine's face.

"It does, does it?" roared Maine. "Then I'll have it."

"No, you won't," answered Claflin. "This will was executed three days before the forged one that has been admitted to probate."

—o—o—
GRAND OPERA STAR "STARS" IN NOVEL

Mme
Louise Homer
GRAND OPERA STAR

New York.—Famous artist, devoted wife, mother of twins, Mme. Louise Homer, grand opera star, is now being "starred" as the heroine of Anne Warwick's story of stage life, "Victory Law."

BARRY'S KINSWOMAN TO UNVEIL STATUE

Elise Hepburn

Philadelphia, Pa.—Miss Elise Hepburn, great grand niece of Commodore Jo Barry, will unveil the monument to be dedicated at Washington, May 16, to the "Father of the American Navy." The Barry memorial statue, which cost $50,000, is a tribute from the United States to the revolutionary naval hero.

—o—o—
Stains on Tiled Hearths.—Rub with sand and paraffin, not soap.